Norwich, Wednesday, Jan. 23, 1918.

THE WEATHER.

The Gulf of Mexico disturbance on Monday night is now central off Nantucket with greatly increased intensity, while the moderate upper lake disturbance is over Ontario. The precipitation area, attending these disturbances since Monday night covers the entire country east of the Mississippi river, the snow extending southward into the north portions of the east gulf states. From Virginia northeastward into southern New England the snowfall was more or less heavy. During Tuesday the weather cleared from the middle Atlantic states southwestward and there was no precipitation of consequence in the west except in the extreme northwest, where there were some light snows due to a disturbance of marked character central tonight over Saskatchewan with a southeastward movement.

With the exception of snow Wednesday in north New England and on Thursday in the upper lake and western lower lake region, the weather will be fair Wednesday and Thursday in the east and south. Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from north of the Virginia capes to Eastport.

Forecast.
 Southern New England: Fair, continued cold Wednesday and Thursday.

Observations in Norwich.
 The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Tuesday:

COUNTY FOOD COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Object is to Spread the Doctrine of Increased Food Production

Next Summer—Meetings Will be Organized to Bring Home Necessity of Greater Crops.

To spread the doctrine of increased food production next summer State Food Administrator Robert Scoville met and conferred with representative farmers from all parts of the state in Hartford Tuesday. The imperative need for bumper crops in Connecticut was pointed out to them and a movement was organized to intensively inculcate this idea in every agricultural community before spring.

Administrator Scoville was assisted in presenting the problem by others in the food conservation work and all sides of the question were thoroughly explained.

One phase of the contemplated change was gone into by Charles R. Treat, of Orange, who spoke on the subject of boy labor on farms. He urged that volunteers from the cities be recruited as in 1917 with the difference that this year they be put under military regime with those in authority empowered to enforce discipline.

That the gospel of food and more food may be spread effectively everywhere in the state Administrator Scoville named a general committee of farmers from each county to organize meetings and provide speakers to bring home to the food producers the necessity of greater crops. This committee includes the following:

New London county: I. E. Crouch, Groton; John D. Aved down in Hartford Tuesday. They included the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad against Benjamin A. Armstrong and others, a New London county case. Error is found in plaintiff's appeal and no error in defendant's appeal. The case was tried by Judge Shumway.

Tolland county: W. B. Small, Vernon; Raymond C. Barrows, Union.

NORWICH MAN LOST IN ARCTIC OCEAN
 Captain Arthur O. Gibbons and Entire Crew Perished While Homeward Bound.

It has been learned in Norwich that Captain Arthur O. Gibbons, a local man, and his entire crew were lost in the Arctic ocean on the schooner A. T. Gifford about October 3, 1915. The men were lost at Dicks Island, at the northwest end of Hudson Straits while on the way home. The schooner Pythian, Captain George Fred Tilton, sent north last June has been at Sydney, N. S., since last October for repairs. The schooner was towed into that port in a sinking condition.

Captain Gibbons made his home in this city. He was born in Cornwall, Mass., and was the son of Orland Gibbons. He leaves a mother, Mrs. John Murray of McKinley avenue, a half brother and nephews and nieces. He followed the sea for forty years.

LOCAL MILK PRODUCERS
 MEET THIS MONTH.

Delegates to County Convention to Be Chosen at Annual Business Sessions.

The local associations of the New England Milk Producers' association will all hold their annual meetings this month. At the annual meetings officers will be elected and delegates appointed to the county convention to be held on Feb. 1st. Each association is allowed one delegate for each 20 members. At the county convention delegates will be appointed to the New England convention to be held in Boston on Feb. 28th. Local associations will hold annual meetings on the following dates:

Lebanon—Wednesday afternoon (today) in Lebanon grange hall.
 Preston and Ledyard—Meeting Wednesday evening at the home of J. K. Hall, Preston.
 Jewett City (Boston shippers)—Jewett City town hall Thursday afternoon.

North Stonington—Friday afternoon in North Stonington town hall.
 Franklin, Baltic and Sprague—Saturday afternoon.

County Agent F. C. Warner will speak at each meeting as a representative of the N. E. M. P. A. and his topic will be What the Association Has Done and What It is Trying to Do. Carl Musser, extension dairyman at Storrs, will also speak on Reducing Grain Costs. Assistant County Agent Whitman will be present at the meetings to explain dairy problems.

CAMP DEVENS IS COMING TO NORWICH.

Local Chamber of Commerce to Bring It Here in Moving Pictures.

The January open meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the hall of the Y. M. C. A. building on Broadway Monday evening. After a short business meeting V. T. Goggin, engineer for the Fred T. Ley & Co., Inc., builders of the war cantonment at Camp Devens, will give a moving picture illustrated lecture with all the information and details relative to the construction of the war concentration camp, showing the camp from a rough scrub oak wood lot seven miles in length and two in breadth, containing 9,600 acres, through the various operations in the service, including 400 miles of wiring, 60 miles of heating pipes, 2,300 shower baths with a maximum number of men employed per day 11,750, using 40,000,000 board feet of lumber with a capacity of the finished camp for 43,000 officers and men.

WELL ATTENDED DANCE
 IN T. A. B. HALL.

Proceeds for Benefit of Y. M. H. A. War Fund.

The T. A. B. D. P. society gave a well attended dance in T. A. B. hall Tuesday evening for the benefit of the soldiers and sailors. Among the large number present were many in uniform, including both sailors and soldiers. The proceeds will be given to the war fund for those in the service, which is being raised by the Y. M. H. A. A dance program of 18 numbers was enjoyed, music being furnished by the Cadillac orchestra. The committee in charge was David Benedict, chairman, Samuel Abelman, M. Seigel, P. Kreiger and H. Levine.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Boys' Service League to Hold Debate on Practical Subject—B. M. Bruce Writes from Washington.

The Boys' Service League of the Y. M. C. A. will hold an interesting meeting tonight, when the members of the league will partake of a "Dutch treat" supper which will be served by the ladies of the auxiliary.

After supper there will be an interesting debate on a practical subject, and the evening will doubtless be an interesting one.

Physical Director Crosby had a large class of seniors on the gym floor Tuesday evening and after the regular class work games were enjoyed by all. This is one of the best classes in the gym this season, the attendance being the largest in this particular class for some years past.

General Secretary Will received a very interesting letter from B. Montgomery Bruce, the former office secretary of the local association, who recently resigned to accept a position in Washington, D. C., with the war trade bureau. Mr. Bruce writes interestingly about his new position and evidently is enjoying life in the Capitol City.

The Y. M. C. A. Boy Scouts held a meeting at the "Y" Tuesday evening. Scoutmaster Rinehart assigned territory to the members of his troop for the delivery of the district's flag and ayadrest. There was a good attendance.

Richards, who achieved distinction as a tennis player and is now connected with a Boston advertising business. The ceremony is to take place next Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ella Mahr, at 31 Elmwood street.

Miss Mahr's grandfather was court physician to the Grand Duke Adolph of Nassau and her father was a pupil of the great Joseph an diater in charge of violin courses at the New England Conservatory of Music. He died four years ago.

Miss Mahr was educated at the Roxbury High school and at the conservatory. Mr. Richards is of Norwich.

Conn. He is now a member of the naval reserve corps. They will live in Arlington.

COUNTY AGENT WARNER
 ATTENDS CONFERENCE.
 Many Important Matters Brought Up for Discussion at Hartford.

County Agent F. C. Warner of this city on Monday attended a county agents' convention in Hartford, when a number of important matters were discussed. Among the more important matters was that of co-operation with the state council of defense, and another matter taken up for discussion was the food fair. Food fairs are to be held throughout the state this week. Plans for the distribution of nitrate of soda as fertilizer by the government was also taken up. The nitrate of soda, 100,000 tons of which has been secured by the government from Chile, is to be sold at cost to the farmers through the county agents.

Lieutenant Christiansen, of the German Naval Reserve, under whose command the attack upon the Scandinavian convoy was recently made, has received the Order Pour le Merite.
